

Xavier University of Louisiana

EXCITING NEW CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Certificate in Health Communication

A career in health communication will prepare students to help others understand more about medical treatment, healthy lifestyle choices, disease prevention, and more. The primary focus of the certificate health communication is spreading information to the public that can have an overall impact on the health and well-being of the population. (16 credit hours)

Public Health Science

Required Courses (3 hrs):

PHLT 1001: Introduction to Public Health

Elective Courses (6 hrs):

PHLT 2002: Health Prom. Program Plan.
PHLT2004: Intro.to Environmental Health
PHLT 4003: Senior Seminar Case Studies
PHLT 4002: Intro. To Global Health

Communications Studies

Required Courses (4 hrs):

CMST 1080: Health Communication
CMST 4131: Independent Study

Elective Courses (3 hrs):

CMST1400: Interpersonal Communicatio
CMST 1500: Intercultural Communicator
CMST 3030:Race.Culture. & Comm.
CMST 3040: Small Group Communication

*Cost $286 per credit hour
Financial Aid is available*

CONTACT INFO

Center for Continuing Studies and Distance Education

(504) 520-7669

Learn More and Apply at gradapply.xula.edu